

Sarah Bettens, Don't Stop

Don't stop trying, there's always reason to go on living as long as you can breathe stay clear of extremes just say what you mean but try not to be mean you should say thank you often, like your hair wave to strangers everywhere do what your supposed to do don't look at what the others do thing before you buy a car don't marry someone you met at a bar there's no suchthing as going too far love who you are don't be scared of what's ahead but wear the helmet to protect your head be aware, way you care, don't say fair...
Stay close to the hand that raised you watch for signs never waste expensive wine spoil your body, spoil yourself never cheat and share your wealth sing when you're glad close the door if you sound bad don't believe a man who knows he's right don't skip ahead, enjoy your flight be nice to your dog, drive slow in the fog convince yourself to write a song change clothes everyday wall ahead when you're late be safe when you're planning to get laid read what you like be on your brother's side it's okay to wonder why but don't expect to understand your life don't expect to understand your life ...
