

Sarah Bettens, I'm Okay

Look for me right when the lights go down
My own little natural hide
I should be floating on top of the world
But I just keep wondering why

I feel more alone in this wonderful crowd
And I ever do on my own
I know that this is a place I'm along But I'd rather be coming back home

Oooh, I want you to know I'm okay
I just need to know that you're waiting you're waiting
for me

Someone keep saying I could be a star Never quite sure what that means Sounds like there's something I'm missing right now But who they think I could be

All that I'm missing is you my love Come find me whenever you can I'll be the one looking up at the sun with a picture of you in my hand

Oooh, I want you to know I'm okay
I just need to know that you're waiting
you're waiting
for me

Oooh, I want you to know I'm okay
I just need to know that you're waiting
you're waiting for me, oohho
