

Sarah Blasko, At Your Best

It's you against the world, i don't think so
They wouldn't stand a chance now girl
And even when your back's on the ropes
I can tell, you'll get them by the final bell

If only you were at your best
Instead of fighting yourself as well
If only you were at your best
Instead of fighting yourself

You're high above the world, i don't think so
If you're hanging around me girl
And even when you try to call
I know you stall; you climb another storey tall

If only you were at your best
Instead of fighting yourself as well
If only you were at your best
Instead of fighting yourself

Don't let your mind change you this time
Don't let the tide turn you tonight

If only you were at your best
Instead of fighting yourself as well
If only you were at your best
Instead of fighting yourself
