

Sarah Blasko, God-Fearing

You've got a nerve,
You know you make me hate?
One thing I love you try to take away
I'm not beaten down,
I won't behave
Just listen this once or you will rue this day

You have no respect
Fear me tonight if you're not listening
It might be unkind but it might be right
That you're not listening

Set them up, knock them down
Cast the left, cast them right
God-fearing tonight

Biting my lip and holding my tongue
Was the most stupid thing that I've ever done
Got carried away, let myself down
I'll shoulder that blame if you'll admit what you've done

You have no respect
Fear me tonight if you're not listening
It might be unkind but it might be right
That you're not listening

Set them up, knock them down
God-fearing tonight
