Sarah Brightman, Snow On The Sahara

Only tell me that you still want me here When you wander off out there To those hills of dust and hard winds that blow In the dry white ocean alone

Lost out in the desert You are lost out in the desert

But to stand with you in a ring of fire I'll forget the days gone by I'll protect your body and guard your soul From mirages in your sight

Lost out in the desert You are lost out in the desert

If your hopes scatter like the dust across your track I'll be the moon that shines on your path The sun may blind our eyes, I'll pray the skies above For snow to fall on the Sahara

If that's the only place where you can leave your doubts I'll hold you up and be your way out And if we burn away, I'll pray the skies above For snow to fall on the Sahara

Just a wish and I will cover your shoulders With veils of silk and gold When the shadows come and darken your heart Leaving you regrets so cold

Lost out in the desert You are lost out in the desert

If your hopes scatter like the dust across your track I'll be the moon that shines on your path The sun may blind our eyes, I'll pray the skies above For snow to fall on the Sahara

If your hopes scatter like the dust across your track I'll be the moon that shines on your path The sun may blind our eyes, I'll pray the skies above For snow to fall on the Sahara

If that's the only place where you can leave your doubts I'll hold you up and be your way out And if we burn away, I'll pray the skies above For snow to fall on the Sahara

Oh-oh-oh oh-oh-oh For snow to fall on the Sahara Oh-oh-oh oh-oh-oh
