Now you make me lose reason, don't say anything
always, always it will be the two of us we know that night and in the street the same thing will be.

You want to return and I don't see you anymore
you want to return and I don't feel anything. (2x)

You want to return and I don't see you anymore
you want to return and I can't find myself anymore. (2x)

I think that day, the same thing as yesterday, the same thing will be.
I think that day, the same thing as yesterday, the same thinking.

You want to return and I don't see you anymore
you want to return and I can't find myself anymore. (4x)
