Sarah Connor, See You Later

I bet you got a girl
Or guy that you've been waitin' for
Been whatchin' you from the floor
Inside my mind
I've been undressin' you down to the core
I know where this is going careful
What you whishing for

Wow when your fantasy mathces reality
Now I know what you want
But can you handle me

I'll getcha getcha on your worst behavior
Eat you up
Chew you up
Blow your radar
You can call your mama
Nothing's gonna save ya
Love you now and see you later

Let yourself go
Give in to what's in you
Don't go too slow
Give in to what's in you

I wanna now if everything on you is what it seems
I'm confident in what I want
If you know what I mean

Now time to let the clothes
Drop just like dominoes
Mind in the gutter so?
We lost it long ago
Tomorrow is another day
Do what you wanna do
Don't start to panic
I'm not here to try and marry you
Wooh now you're comin' through
You sensing my perfume
Enjoy my point of view
I feel the moment, too

I'll getcha getcha on your worst behavior
Eat you up
Chew you up
Blow your radar
You can call your mama
Nothing's gonna save ya
Love you now and see you later

Let yourself go
Give in to what's in you
Don't go too slow
Give in to what's in you

Tell me what you like
And I give it
I have what you want
Come and get it
Let your love flow

I'll getcha getcha on your worst behavior
Eat you up

Chew you up
Love you now and see you late
