

Sarah Dawn Finer, Moving on

Dreaming, hoping
For another try
I've been looking, searching
Deeper down inside
And if I lose my way
I'll find another road
'Cause I can make a change
On my own
I'm moving on
And I'm gonna get stronger now
And nothing will break me down
I will not give in to doubt
Those days are gone
I can be who I wanna be
And start living my life of me
I believe it finally
I'm moving on
Something, somewhere
That I long to find
I am learning slowly
One day at a time
That if I lose and fail
I'll be fine
I'm moving on
And I'm gonna get stronger now
And nothing will break me down
I will not give in to doubt
Those days are gone
I can be who I wanna be
And start living my life of me
I believe it finally
I'm moving on
To a brighter dawn
Gotta take the fight
I can make it right
I'm moving on
Nothing will break me down
I will not give in to doubt
Those days are gone
I can be who I wanna be
And start living my life of me
I believe it finally
I'm moving on
Yes, I'm moving on
I'm moving on
