

Sarah Masen, Sunday Afternoon

Sunday afternoon
Got some work to do
But I can't keep my mind off You
I look at where I am
I look at how I stand
And I would be nowhere without You

I fear I'm falling fast, cut by broken glass
And I shattered myself inside my sorrows
And I fly back to yesterday
And all the time You've been holding me
It's been a long, long way
Reaching for that day
When I will be with You forever, forever

Sunday afternoon
I've got some work to do
But I can't keep my mind off You
