

Sarah Masen, Uncovered

I fall into my heart's fire
And feel a chilly wind
Full of emptiness
And I see my weakness stealing
My hope to carry on
This grief within me

Don't care if I'm naked with shame
Put me back under Your flame
I've fallen and I am to blame
Burn this heart clean
I've fallen again

This time will be the last one
I've said this a thousand years
Lies to just help cope
Then you came
Carrying my shame
Then I looked through my tears
Then I felt your pain

Don't care if I'm naked with shame
Put me back under Your flame
I've fallen and I am to blame
Burn this heart clean
I've fallen
Don't care if I'm naked with shame
Put me back under Your flame
I've fallen and I am to blame
burn this heart clean
I've fallen again
Again, again, again
