

Sarah Masen, Unveiled Faces

I see where You pulled me now I&#039;m reaching I&#039;ve let what You told me would consume my soul - shine

You showed me Your glory
It overwhelmed me
You&#039;ve taught me to lose myself
That&#039;s where start to

Shine the unveiled faces
Reflecting the knowledge of Christ

Awakened by sunlight
I&#039;m outside of the cave creation&#039;s dancing before me
Bearing Your name as it

Shines the unveiled faces
Reflecting the knowledge of Christ
Shine increasing glory
Transforming a simple mold to shine

And the darkness
It kills us
But it calls us
Friends drawing us back home

Shine the unveiled faces
Reflecting the knowledge of Christ
Shine increasing glory
You&#039;re crashing the shadows with light
