

Sarah Sadler, Orbit

As I watch the day
I am so amazed by what you do
When I close my eyes
I am mesmerized by thoughts of you
Sometimes I can disappear
And let your love surround me
The little things that I hold dear
Are falling down around me

Chorus:
Even now I know this orbit that I'm in
Is spinning me to you
I am silenced by
The will of my intent to only be with you
Completely lost in you

Every dream I hide
Give them wings so they can fly to you
As I wait to find all you have in mind for me to be
My ambitions fade away
They offer no resistance
Take me up into your space into your existence

Chorus

It is clear to me
I've nowhere to be without you
It's true
You're my gravity and I could never doubt you
I'm lost in you
