

Sarah Sadler, Running Into You

There are days and
There are nights when
I just want to run
From the heartache and
From the mistakes and
Far from everyone

Chorus:

I keep running into You
Everywhere I go
I feel You all around
Like the air I'm breathing
It's love at every turn
Whispering my name
My heart comes undone
I can't walk away
I keep running into You

In the quiet
In the chaos
You're my solitude
If I'm falling of
If I'm flying, well
I keep seeing You

Chorus

And You run before me
And You chase behind me
And I know that where I am
You will be
