

Sarina Paris, Just About Enough

Just about enough x4

Just about enough
Can't take anymore of you
Just about enough
You got me over the edge
Just about enough
You won't give me what I deserve
I'm no fool
Gotta get away from you

After all you put me through
Boy, I'm still in love with you
Oh, but you don't seem to care
You keep pushing my love down the stairs

You got me crying
So I'm leaving you behind

Just about enough
Can't take anymore of you
Just about enough
You got me over the edge
Just about enough
You won't give me what I deserve
I'm no fool
Gotta get away from you

I have given all to you
Gotta change my point of view
'Cause all I get in return
Is a heart getting torn apart

You got me crying
So I'm leaving you behind

Just about enough
Can't take anymore of you
Just about enough
You got me over the edge
Just about enough
You won't give me what I deserve
I'm no fool
Gotta get away from you

Just about enough x4

Just about enough x4

Just about enough
Can't take anymore of you
Just about enough
You got me over the edge
Just about enough
You won't give me what I deserve
I'm no fool
