

Sarina Paris, You

You (8xs)

My songs not ringing, my toe bell isnt singing ?
My bed is empty, my friends says all I do is cry
Because you left me and you didnt even want me
Im lost and lonely, cant live without you

Chorus:

You

Every beat of my heart, everyday of my life

Every thought on my mind

Every second, every moment

You

Every still of the night, every romance goes right

Every dream I deny

Every second, every moment

You

Every beat of my heart, everyday of my life

Every thought on my mind

Every second, every moment

You

Every tear that I cry, every hope in my mind

Everything that I hide

Every second, every moment

You

Every second, every moment: You (3xs)

Im hearing footsteps outside my door I get up
A voice is humming, a tune thats sounding like goodbye
I know Ill find you, no matter where youre hiding
And so I wish for a chance to find you
