

Sasha Lazard, Awakening (Delerium Remix)

Into the night
you fled
betrayed me
your hollow heart
and luring stare

My blood
ran cold
then I heard him -
from far away
a lullaby

CHORUS

Out of my deep despair, my lover sang a melody
He sent a ray of light to me and saved me from the darkness cause when I heard his voice, it sparked a distant memory - A savior calling out to me to set me free

How could it be the face of an angel
could drag me down
and leave me blind

I know
My heart, though weary
Must rise again
And come to you
