

Sasha Sloan, at least i look cool at least i look cool

i drive a car that doesn't work I shop at target for my shirts and when I pay my rent it hurts but I got invited to this thing so I thing tonight I am going out I am getting off my shitty couch ready to fuck my bank account and I am not myself

but at least I look cool

at some house in Malibu taking pictures by the pool doing things I'd never do

oh god, I think I might throw up don't even know what's in my cup and I'll admit this kinda sucks but before I leave I know I gotta find someone dope that I can pose adjust my hair adjust my cloths so I can get that fire post and it's all for show

at some house in Malibu

at some house I can't afford blacked out on the tennis court honestly I am kinda bored

I just lie about my age nobody even knows my name got an uber pool on the way

at some house in Malibu
