

Satanic Surfers, Waves Of Blood

I can't let you go
Even though I know you've reached the end it's so hard when you lose a good and faithful friend
What can I say?
Things will never be the same without you under my feet out there on the waves
All the waves we've surfed together
Knowing you'll never surf again
I throw your ashes to the ocean ...
My good old friend DO DI DO DI DOOH!!!
Have to let go But one day we'll meet again
Surfing on the waves we've surfed together
Knowing one day we'll surf again ...
My good Old friend
I throw your ashes to the ocean my friend!!!
