

Satellite Party, Hard Life Easy

You are my secret lover,
And so I took you undercover.
You ask me "How you doin' tiger?" I say,
My hard life just got easy.

Big mountain Colorado.
Small island Fiji.
I take you, everywhere I go because,
You make my hard life easy.

Watch over me like heaven does the sea,
Floating on our bed sized key.
You give to me your kiss of victory,
Oh our hard life just got easy,
Now...

And when my stitches come undone.
I lose the stuff that, fills me.
I hold you and suddenly I'm better for it,
You make my hard life easy.

Watch over me like heaven does the sea,
Floating on our bed sized key.
You give to me your kiss of victory,
Oh our hard life just got easy,
Now...

Ohhh my baby,
Ohhh my baby.

Watch over me like heaven does the sea,
Floating on our bed sized key.
You give to me your kiss of victory,
Oh our hard life just got easy,
Now...

Made my hard life easy.

Yeah, ohhh yeah.

Oh my love, what days are these?
From morning bliss to, luck at your knees.
Bittersweet, before our mouths.
Taste of life, make it go down.

Make it easy, make it go down,
Make it easy, make it go down.

C'mon baby.
