

Satellite Party, Mr. Sunshine

It's true that I do fantasize about you
Last night made me feel as real as the forces of nature
Calling me yours eternally
Your bonafide lover
You're changing my hard life forever

Good morning Mr. Sunshine
You brighten up my day

When morning bells ring
And the souls are recalled
Returning to Earth
Back to their mortal coils
I'm still savoring your sweet flavour
Stay with me Dear
Until last night's amazement clears

Good morning Mr. Sunshine
You brighten up my day

Oh
We fell in love over night
We fell in love over night
Falling head over heels
What will this new day reveal to us

Good morning Mr. Sunshine
You brighten up my day
You brighten up my day

When morning bells ring
And the souls are recalled
Returning to Earth
Back to their mortal coils
I'm still savoring your sweet flavour
Stay with me Dear
Until last night's amazement clears

Well it's true that I do fantasize about you
Last night made me feel as real as the forces of nature
Calling me yours eternal
Bonafide lover let's spend the night together
