

Savannah Dexter, Cowboy

Let me saddle up your high horse
So you can gallop over top of me like dirt
Tell me you can heal me
So I can sharpen up your spurs
Make it hurt 'til my eyes pour out
Like the whiskey that you blame
Before you ride away with your ego
And leave me with the pain

Let me tell you how a real cowboy rides
They never make a cowgirl cry
Supposed to feel safe by a cowboy's side
Your heart only breaks when the cowboy dies
Boy you ain't a cowboy
You ain't a cowboy

Boy you had me wrapped around your fingers
So tight, I'm not gon' lie
But you made me insecure
Now I'm pretty sure I know why
Your only ammo was low blows
Every shot got you high
When it comes to love a lasso
Ain't the knot too tight?

Let me tell you how a real cowboy rides
They never make a cowgirl cry
Supposed to feel safe by a cowboy's side
Your heart only breaks when the cowboy dies
Boy you ain't a cowboy
You ain't a cowboy

It all came out in the wash
It was all of a sud
I went chasing a sunset
And found a mirage
Realized you wasn't heaven
Got the hell outta touch
I still can't believe
I fell in love with a fraud

Let me tell you how a real cowboy rides
They never make a cowgirl cry
Supposed to feel safe by a cowboy's side
Your heart only breaks when the cowboy dies
Let me tell you how a real cowboy rides
They never make a cowgirl cry
Supposed to feel safe by a cowboy's side
Your heart only breaks when the cowboy dies
Boy you ain't a cowboy
You ain't a cowboy
