Savatage, Blackjack Guillotine

Blackjack guillotine Razor sharp

Always clean Gotta lie Very wide Once inside she knows what to do She knows what to do

Skin tight

China white Just another neon life In the vein Leaves a stain All the time you know that it's true You know that its true

So tell me what you had in store It doesn't matter anymore It never did, it never will But I'll be out there waiting still

You're moving fast but leaving tracks A compromise to your attacks There comes a time you want to take it back Back

Back

Back But can't think of nothing I Can't think of nothing I Can't think of nothing I Lack

Junkie

Credit card Gotta vein Goes for yards Hypnotised You decide Every neuron's changing its view Changing its view

Gentlemen

Summarize Every lie Well disguised Don't forget

Neuron death In the mind awaiting its cue Awaiting its cue

And so we found it very mod The worshiping of lesser gods And lie they do For lie they must For they know it's the lie we trust

And so we're out there laying tracks

Wherever there's a vein to pack There comes a time you want to take it back Back Back Back But I can't think of nothing I can't think of nothing I can't think of nothing I lack
