Savatage, In The Dream

can you hear me call your name I'm not far away I think of you Somehow you drifted far away from me I can't explain

In the dream You're all I see In the dream Is where I'll be

With no one by my side The tears in my eyes I dream of you Could you ever feel the same I think you can

In the dream You're all I see In the dream Is where I'll be In the dream You're all I see In the dream Is where I'll be

In the dream In the dream
