

Saves The Day, Dreams From Cannibal Island

I'm not sure what to do because sometimes I see your legs, want to eat them with honey mustard sauce

I've been told that it's not okay to eat human beings even when they've passed away told me once when I was five, that only bad boys try to eat their sister's arms

So I'll have to stick to cannibals in the pool just after school gets out when boys and girls play just after school lets out
