

Saves The Day, In Reverie

Bottles breaking on my face are only your reminder of your love I lost a lifetime ago was I dreaming when I knew you? I don't know.

So once again I swim In Reverie without your love
so long ago I cant remember now where we began

Smell of burning photographs slides slowly to my nostrils I try remember the soft silence of summer sweating in the evening

So once again I swim In Reverie
without your love
where we began [3x]

where we began [3x]
