

Saves The Day, Kentucky Parallel Parking

We all collected in a room, you were there.
your shirt was red, we got scared when everything stopped.
I yelled at you for being so mean to me.
off my head nothing sounds right. I'm mixed up and somewhat dead.

I took it all so well. I'm so proud and I'm so quiet and I'm so in love.
I cornered you outside, there were no walls, it was so quiet. and I'm so in love, just a little better now. big brown letters and a flower, we talk and its a good talk. I ask if we could kiss and we did.
they all stopped and we talked down the hall. there's a whisper, everything's O.K.

I took it all so well. I'm so proud and I'm so quiet and I'm so in love.
I cornered you outside, there were no walls, it was so quiet. and I'm so in love,

I still think of nothing all the time. just about you.
