

Saves The Day, Ups & Downs

And I'm gonna get to the bottom of this
Gonna peel back my skin and
Look at myself shaking and shivering, yeah.

And I'll get the rope
From in the house
Survey the scene
Finding two of the tallest trees
And I'll tie myself up
Above the cool earth
To dangle in the twilight.

And as my skin collects
In a pile on the ground
I'll radiate heat
And turn off my head
And just pretend that I don't exist
And I'll see clearly to the end

Of the ropes that I've been hanging from
Whoa-oh-oh
As they loosen from the trees
I plummet to the ground
To be impaled and turned around
(Turn me right around)
Finally free from the ups and downs.
