

Saves The Day, What Went Wrong

A month ago
there we were surrendering ourselves to the local police paying them not to tell while we waited we all

Sang a song of sorrow
solely to remember
what went wrong

Leonard looked like a ghost gave him a foot massage Molly shook like a fish dangling on a line
Walter wore women's clothes

We sang a song of sorrow
solely to remember
what went wrong

We sang a song of sorrow
solely to remember
what went wrong

In the darkness
we were all strip-searched nothing was found

Suffering from the full cavity search we fell to our knees
to repent
I can't recall right now what it was that we did

We sang a song of sorrow
solely to remember
what went wrong

Sang a song of sorrow
solely to remember
what went wrong

In the darkness
we were all strip-searched
nothing was found
