

Saving Aimee, Small talk

So yeah you're into taking all the credit in your preppy clothes
We don't get a single word you bought us out that's how it goes
Would you like a ticket to our next support show?
I'll throw in this song and yeah you might get good (oh)
Not that your a problem just an aggravation when you're here
So we'll move to small talk and we'll do so through the act of care
It's a lovely setting, for the purely perfect wedding
And to claim they were inventing would be nothing but consenting (oh)
Oh what a mistake to talk you down like that and I'm sorry
So won't you come and fight back?
It was a mistake to talk you down like that and it goes on and on and on and on
Oh what a mistake to talk you down like that and I'm sorry
So won't you come and fight back?
It was a mistake to talk you down like that and it goes on and on and on and on
Check out all the people yeah they're queuing just for you tonight
Didn't cost you much, and yeah you gone and got the lime light
Well just hide away and print the plans for us to dominate
Maybe we should act, for now were gonna hesitate
So yeah, so yeah so yeah, so yeah, there's Still a little problem, and the problem is that nothings fair
So much for that wedding, with the matching table setting
And to claim that I'm consenting would be no less the convicting them
Oh what a mistake to talk you down like that and I'm sorry
So won't you come and fight back?
It was a mistake to talk you down like that and it goes on and on and on and on
Oh what a mistake to talk you down like that and I'm sorry
So won't you come and fight back?
It was a mistake to talk you down like that and it goes on and on and on and on
