

Savoy Brown, I'm Alright Now

I'm alright now

it's six o'clock in the morning, and i've been off since a quarter to three.
i've been a-thinking about the past a-bringing back sweet memories.

i used to be dead too long,
and never thought i found a friend, but since you came into my life i never feel that way again.

refrain:

and i'm oh - oh - all, i'm alright now, yes i'm oh - oh - all, i'm alright now,(i'm in love with you baby>optional) yes i'm oh - oh - all, i'm alright now, yes i'm alright now.

i used to sit alone and cry,
and watch the world pass on by,
but then you came knockin'at my door,
you made me glad to be alive.
