

Savoy Brown, Troubled By These Days And Times

Raymond-Chrysalis Music Ltd.

Well I'm troubled, yes I'm troubled

Well I'm troubled by these days and times

Well I'm troubled, yes I'm troubled

You know I'm troubled by these days and times

When fortune smiles on me, it's leaving me behind

Everybody knows that fate can be so unkind

Don't wanna kick myself for the rest of my life

If that's the way it's gotta be I guess it's alright

Well I'm worried, yes I'm worried

I'm worried 'bout what's gonna come

Well I'm worried, oh Lord I'm worried

I'm worried 'bout the things I've done

No use in thinking 'bout what's right or wrong

Caring for nothing than yourself in so long

Should I regret the years I let go by

Living for the day and never wondering why

Well I'm troubled, yes I'm troubled

Well I'm troubled by these days and times

Well I'm troubled, oh Lord I'm troubled

You know I'm troubled by these days and times

When fortune smiles on me, it's leaving me behind

Everybody knows that fate can be so unkind

Don't wanna kick myself for the rest of my life

If that's the way it's gotta be I guess it's alright

Troubled by these days and times
