

Savoy, Get Up Now

You don't know how people talk
They say it's in the way she walks
Friends come up to you and say
I've never seen you act this way

Get up now
She comes through a ring of fire
Preys on your head she desires
She rules your world entire
She'll laugh as you walk right by her

She believes in what you do
Knows exactly what you're going through
She tries hard to be the best
She'll break down before she rests

Get up now
Get up now
Your down fall will take her higher
Don't ask what goes on inside her
What could this world deny her?
She'll laugh as you walk right by her
