

Savoy, Underground

I crossed the town
Underground
You turn, turn away
When I'm there
People stare
So I turn, turn away

Oh Joan we should have stayed together
It's wrong
Your friends don't make you better

I crossed the town
Underground
You turn, turn away
When I'm there
People stare
So I turn, turn away

I know, for her my heart will weep
I know, hey Joan, I'm in too deep
From my heart down to my toes
There are places you should know
From my hips down to my knees
What peculiarities

So take me down
Underground
Don't turn, turn away
Tell me how
Help me now
You turn, turn away
