

Say Anything, You're The Wanker If Anyone Is

With you out of my life skies are blue and love is real and true.

You fugly brat! You pussy cat!

Who ever thought shit could shine like that?

So glad you stabbed my back.

(The blade when I turned my back)

Go away!

Im through with you and all the games you put me through.

Youre old and slow. Im fast and new.

Go away!

Im through with you.

Your eyes- they convey all I despise with one glazed glance in my direction.

Go grow some balls!

Ill think of you when your mama calls in just her underalls.

I'll photograph your descent, your fall!

(When you bitch and beg and crawl!)

Go away!

Im through with you and all the games you put me through.

Dont you tell me what to do!

Go away!

Im through with you.

Please, just leaveyou mean nothing more than nothing now to me.

Please, just leaveyou mean nothing more, you mean nothing to me.
