

Say Hi To Your Mom, I Think I'll Be A Good Ghos

I think i'll be a good ghost when it's time for me
To haunt all the people i knew when i was alive.
I'll wear designer sheets as my only ghost clothes
And get good scissors to cut the eye holes.

Chorus:

And hey, it'll be nice
To be see-through for a while.
And hey, it'll be cool
To be feather light for a while.

I think i'll be a good ghost when it's time for me
To haunt all the people i knew when i was alive.
But i wonder if the girl ghosts will know that i'm there.
Or if ghosts in general don't really care.
