

Say Hi To Your Mom, The Showdown In Goattown

The girls here never come out without black eye makeup or before the sun, who's gone down ho ho ho.

In fact, I don't think singing myself since the first time
That I came around, no.

Are we ever gonna get back to California
Are we ever gonna get back to California again?

Soap song, look for queen singers they climb up the pillows like it I believe I am. I am.

And there's a showdown in goattown
Their leaving life cities, gonna squash us down and down and down and down and down and down

Are we ever gonna get back to California
Are we ever gonna get back to California again?
Are we ever gonna get back to California
Are we ever gonna get back to California again?
