Saybia, A Way Out

What if I stay one more day? Only to see you walk away Leaving this man for everything else I'm trying to open up tonight I need to know why we fight Am I the wall we both climb? If you walk away without a warning If you find a way out A way out A way out Cigarette's lit, and so am I In a room full of smoke and hidden goodbyes With walls caving in on you and I Why should I stay one more day? If you walk away without a warning If you find a way out A way out A way out