

Saybia, Still Falling

Last night I woke
Lost, scared and soaked
In sweat
I lay in bed
Still falling from a rooftop

I'm still trying to get
Closer to who I am
Who I am

Twilight descends
Into a dark velvet painting of my life
Although there's light
Redemption seems so distant

Enchant me with the courage to believe
Won't you grant me all the wisdom that I need

I'm still trying to get
Closer to who I am
Who am I

Enchant me with the courage to believe
Won't you grant me all the wisdom that I need
Grant me all the wisdom that I need
And enchant me with the courage to be free
To be free
