

Saybia, The Haunted House On The Hill

Get it all, get enough
Giving in, giving up
We're children in the wind
Letting sorrow win

Mystify a simple life
Amplify a simple fight
We're creatures of the night
Dodging rays of light
Kings will rise and kings will fall
I wish that we could lose it all

I know I'm forgiven but still
Life is waiting for me
While I'm waiting for you
To carry me home

So it's time to let it go
Choose a path and take it slow
We were lovers let astray
Let's try and find a way
Back to where we all hope to be
Tell me if you disagree?

I know I'm forgiven but still
Life is waiting for me
While I'm waiting for you
To carry me home
