

Scabs, Let Him Whine

Here comes Johnny, macho man
Hard top mustang, second hand
A bottle of bourbon, the usual brand
Looks like harley and the marlboro man
John let Rosie eat from his hand
Love 'em and leave 'em that's his plan
But Rosie ditched this ladies man
He fell in love and came back again

Let him whine
He can do without you baby
It's too late for him to say he was wrong
Let him whine
Just let him go crazy
It's too late now what's done is done
Just let him whine

This new girl he had found
Turned his world upside down
He tried to lose his macho ways
But Rosie still wouldn't let him stay

Let him whine
He can do without you baby
It's too late for him to say he was wrong
Let him whine
Just let him go crazy
It's too late now what's done is done
Just let him whine
