

Scapegoat, Close-minded

You feel more secluded from me today yet I feel more
excluded by what you say

So cut me out more
because I am more now

You step in to rest your simple case but I know I'm not ready for that smack in my face

So cut me out more
because I am more now

But then I will hit you back because I'm back and I learned from the sting when you slapped my face but get back and you'll learn too when I hit you back
because I'm back and I learned from the sting
when you slapped my face
