

Scarlet, Take It Like A Woman

You sleep with me
Cos' I asked you to
But did you have to make me feel like dirt?
You played with me
Cos' you wanted to
Did you have a laugh when I was hurt?
I should have made you wait for a while
Before I let you in my bed
I should've said no to you
But I said yes, I said yes

So I'll take it like a woman would
I'll let it tear me apart
And I'll cry but I won't die
I'll take it like a woman should
I'll let it get to my heart
Then I'll try to start over
I'll start over, start over yeah

You laid with me
You led me on
Did it make you feel mighty and strong?
You shot me down
You had your fun
You'd had enough before I'd even begun
I should have made you feel insecure
Before I let you in my head
I should've meant more to you
But I meant less, I meant less

And I'll take it like a woman would
I'll let it tear me apart
And I'll cry but I won't die
I'll take it like a woman should
I'll let it get to my heart
Then I'll try to start over
I'll start over, start over yeah

I should have thought more of myself
Before I let you in my bed yeah
I should've said no to you
But I said...yes

And I'll take it like a woman would
I'll let it tear me apart
And I'll cry but I won't die
I'll take it like a woman should
I'll let it get to my heart
Then I'll try to start over
I'll start over, start over yeah
I'll start over, start over yeah
I'll start over, start over yeah
