

Scary Kids Scaring Kids, Blood Runs Forever

He sees what's beneath her skin he sees through her soul.
Blue eyes and empty veins her fortune unfolds.
She steps out of her body that lies on the floor.

Rise, rise from the ashes.
Sink teeth into her, she becomes the cure.
Blood runs forever, blood runs forever.

Full moon illuminates the streets breathing fire
the dead come together to drink their desires.
They march down the allies. The devils parade.
More of the turbulence that causes disaster.
More of the chaos erasing the borders.
More than Confusion and all that she fears.
The dark side is coming, the dark side is...

Rise, rise from the ashes.
Sink teeth into her, she becomes the cure.
Blood runs forever, blood runs forever,
Blood runs forever...

She's giving it all away (she's all the way there)
She's giving it all (she is prepared) to take her place, to follow it along she steps into the dark tonight

Rise, rise from the ashes.
Sink teeth into her, she becomes the cure.
Blood runs forever, blood runs forever.

Rise, rise from the ashes.
Sink teeth into her, she becomes the cure.
Blood runs forever, blood runs forever.

Blood runs forever
Blood runs forever
Blood runs forever...
