

Scary Kids Scaring Kids, Faith In The Knife

it's getting colder
each and everyday
the nights get longer
i slowly fade

find me some beauty
in this deceptive place before you know it i'll be gone without a trace

give me a reason to
wake up and face the lie
i've been searching for
a way out of this life
how will i make it through this long and bitter night?

(with no hope that i'll find a sign)
(with no hope that i'll find a sign)

when things like breathing feel like a waste
it seems like leaving's the only way

the past intentions
they never got me by i can't escape this
it has overcome my mind [x2]

overcome my mind

(with no hope that i'll find a sign)
(no hope that i'll find a sign) (no hope that i'll find a sign) [x2] nothing this good

could last forever
(tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight)
i put all my faith in this knife
(tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight)
the lust feels like the tears fall from your eyes

i hope for the best there's nothing left

[screaming]

lets celebrate a romance in it all (tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight)
(goodnight, goodnight, goodnight, goodnight)
