Scaterd Few, Splendor

Stardust a glow Beaming the warmth of many Creatures in tow Following their eternal yearning

All creation is groaning Till Sons of God are revealed For it's own liberation

Not only so But we oursives are yearning Creatures who hope For what we have not patiently

All creation is groaning
Till Sons of God are revealed
For it's own liberation

Body redemption By our adoption Body redemption By our adoption

All creation is groaning Till Sons of God are revealed For it's own liberation

Future splendor
