

Scenes From A Movie, If I Die

Ive got a perfect four hours of sleep under my belt, and I know that's all I need to come with the perfect explanation
for all your constant irritations.
You have to let this go.
I have to let you know.

If I die too young,
I will rest on a mountain of the things that Ive done.
There is no sense dwelling on it.
Hey babe can you tell me something?
Do you know what you're dying for?

but its not a test so if you're testing me then I suggest.

that you should know.
