

Scenes From A Movie, Speaking Of

Don't, don't read too deep into me
cause I am more pictures than words

Speaking of reading did you catch the headlines today?
Nobody told me but apparently breaking hearts is all the rage
I just thought you should know
Speaking of knowing did you know that I'm quite spent?
I'm speaking out in my own defense
I've got nothing left to say

Don't, don't read too deep into me
Cause I am more pictures than words
I won't look too deep into you
I'll chalk you up as just a failure to be heard
Don't, don't read too deep into me
Cause I am more pictures than words
I won't look too deep into you
I'll chalk you up as just a failure to be heard

Speaking of looking your eyes
They cut through me
Burning me in the worst degree
You don't have to say a thing
Cause I already know
So you found me out
Found out I was the jealous type
Ok maybe just a little
Just not quite the way you make it seem

Don't, don't read too deep into me
Cause I am more pictures than words
I won't look too deep into you
I'll chalk you up as just a failure to be heard
Don't, don't read too deep into me
Cause I am more pictures than words
I won't look too deep into you
I'll chalk you up as just a failure to be

Don't, don't read too deep into me
Cause I am more pictures than words
I won't look too deep into you
I'll chalk you up as just a failure to be heard
Don't, don't read too deep into me
Cause I am more pictures than words
I won't look too deep into you
I'll chalk you up as just a failure to be heard
