

Scepter, Age Of Consent

Guilty of a crime i could not help but to commit
You must do with me what you see fit
Charged with lust all that i can say in my defense
I meant only pleasure no offence
Brought before a jury that is made up of my peers
Presented with the evidence the truth will be made clear
A girl whose only aspiration is to be a whore
(is) fine by me who ask for more
Fifteen
Sixteen
Seventeen is fine
One day She'll be 21 somewhere down the line
The jury's out the sentence passed
I'm guilty of being a man
Extenuating circumstance you hold back all you can
Self -incriminated by supposed words of a child
Let her testimony stand
One lick drove her fucking wild
Something's got to give
