Scepter, Age Of Consent

Guilty of a crime i could not help but to commit You must do with me what you see fit Charged with lust all that i can say in my defense I meant only pleasure no offencse Brought before a jury that is made up of my peers Presented with the evidence the truth will be made clear A girl whose only aspiration is to be a whore (is) fine by me who ask for more Fifteen Sixteen Seventeen is fine One day She'll be 21 somewhere down the line The jury's out the sentence passed I'm guilty of being a man Extentuating circumstance you hold back all you can Self -incriminated by supposed words of a child Let her testimony stand One lick drove her fucking wild Something's got to give
