

Scepter, Time To Bleed

Days of pain and nights are lonely
By full moon light
You got needs that are unfulfilled
So it ain't no use to fight
My lust comes from a thousand ages'
Sift the memories into the past
You're the slave and i'm the master
And you know i will be your last
Here i comes again it's time to bleed
Another fullmoon rising It's time to feed
Lifegiver don't wanna give my soul away
To the whip and the chain you're my slave
On your knees you sweet little whore
I'm gonna give you what i got in store
Well let me tell you i got news for you
When i'm finished you're though
White light from from the perfect virgin
Blackened by the filth of shame
In your womb is the mark of my beast
And it never goes away
